Tour Discription

The Himalayan province is known across India for its pleasant early summer climate, mountain peaks, stunningly beautiful landscapes and cool mountain streams. Manali is the premier hill station in the Kullu valley, whose splendour lies in the ever flowing Beas river with conifer gradients and crop orchards hiking up to the snow clad knolls of the Himalayas. With skyscraping mountains bounded by blizzards and deep rock spread ravines, Manali presents a distinguished holiday spot for all. The chunky afforests with cool gentle winds, vast expansion of meadows, small quaint settlements and lovely orchards, give a majestic look to the serene ambience of Manali.
