Day 2:

IN MYSORE

This morning, proceed on an excursion to visit one of the best-preserved Hoysala temple at Somnathpur.

The Hoysala temple in Somnathpur in Karnataka is unique in its style and presentation and is devoted to Prasanna Chennakeshava. The temple was constructed in the 12th-13th century by the Hoysala rulers and their officials. It is lavishly adorned with sculpture. The sculptures probably cover each and every inch of the wall space. This particular style of intensely packed sculptural scheme is the characteristic exclusive to the Hoysala art.

In the afternoon, visit the famous Mysore Palace which is a historical monument located in the city of Mysore in Karnataka, facing the Chamundi Hills eastwards. It was the authorized residence and seat of the Maharajas of Mysore who ruled the region between the 14th and the 20th century. Mysore Palace houses a number of hidden tunnels leading from the cellar to other palaces and confidential areas in Srirangapatna. The palace is a three-stone structure with marble domes. Its entrance displays the emblem and coat of arms of the Mysore Kingdom. It is the venue for the famous Mysore Dasara Festival held every year on the day of Vijaya Dashmi, featuring stage performances by leading

Day 4 :
COORG

After breakfast, proceed on a sightseeing tour of Coorg visiting places like the Medikeri Fort ,Omkareshwara Temple and Abbey Falls. Visit
A famous landmark in the city of Coorg, the Madikeri Fort is one of the relics of the glorious past of Karnataka. The fort holds remnants of history. The Fort was built in the late 16th century and was raised and rebuilt in the 17th century. The most salient feature of the fort is that there are two masonry elephants installed outside the front gate of the fort. The fort is a great vantage point to see the entire city of Coorg from atop.
A Shaiva theology inspired temple, the Omkareshwara temple was built in the most unique architectural combinations. The temple has been built in a rare mix of Gothic and Islamic forms of architecture. It has a pond which has been used for centuries for prayer and offerings to God. The temple is symbolic of a repentant king and his true devotion to the Lord.
Later, visit Abbey Falls - located between coffee plantations that is spread through acres of land. The view of the cascading water from the high mountain cliffs in the Abbey falls is truly astounding. The water here falls from a great height and the origin of the waterfall seems to be from the Kaveri River. The Abbey falls is a very pleasant location for nature lovers and trekking enthusiasts.
The rest of the day is at leisure to explore this city.
